P R O C L A M A T I O N

WHEREAS, The American Indian residing in the State of South Dakota desires to promote greater friendship and understanding with other citizens of this great state, and

WHEREAS, the American Indian has been one of the greatest contributors to our history both in shared and remembered heritage and in spirit, pride and hope for the future, and

WHEREAS, tho non-Indian population including schools and civic groups should strive to promote a closer association, communication and a better understanding with these, our first Americans

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim that October 15, 1965, be set aside as and urge that proper commendation be given to the social, economic and educational advancement made by our Indian citizens, and that the promotion of good will be encouraged between the Indian peoples of the State of South Dakota and all other citizens of this great state as we stand side by side.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota to be affixed on this 6th October in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and sixty-five.
